Hi everyone

Did you know there are many online sessions that you can join from the comfort of your own computer during school terms? These are great opportunities to attend professional learning and connect with other educators, and most are free:

- Tech Talk Tuesdays, 3:45pm with Anne Murchison – today’s topic: Social Media apps trending with our students.
- eLearning educators, Thursdays 8:00pm with Shingo Gibson-Suzuki – various topics, links to join, links to past recordings.
- ACCE Learning Network Mondays 9:30 with Roland Gesthuizen and Amanda Rablin
- Scootle Live – Wednesdays at 4:00pm – various topics
- Teacher Learning Network IT in the classroom series, Thursdays 4:00pm (costs applies for non-members)
- DLTV, Tuesdays 4:00pm – various topics (costs applies)
- Check out your subject association as well.

This Weeks Blog Post

Our guest blogger this week is Erin Jackson from Kennington Primary School. Erin has been using Mystery Skype with her class to support Geography, Maths and English. A great blog post with practical advice that will help you get started. Read more

Addressing the cybersafety challenge: from risk to resilience is a recent report that exploring the unique behaviours and risks that face children, young people, adults, seniors and parents in their online engagements. It identifies the most effective cyber safety strategies to specifically address each age cohort. An interesting finding is the importance of digital literacy and a hands on approach with some exposure to risk is necessary to improve digital literacy. Read more
