LEADING LEARNING IN THE DIGITAL AGE

Are you an e-confident leader?

What do you know and do about building, connecting and engaging with the e-confidence of your students?

ABOUT THE SESSION

This one day workshop is intended to help school leaders develop their understanding for shaping a future-oriented vision for education in their school, drawing on and building the capacity of their teachers, to equip their students with the necessary skills and knowledge to succeed in a society that has been transformed by digital technologies.

Through instructional innovation, focused on continuous improvement of digital age learning, teachers and school leaders can model and promote the frequent and effective use of technology to apply to a Digital Learning Strategy.

This program will enable you to:

* understand the concept of e-confidence and apply this thinking to your own school context
* explore the characteristics of e-confident students, teachers and leaders and learning environments that can help to foster 21st century learning and innovative teaching practices
* build an awareness of the DEECD Digital Learning Strategy and supporting resources and services school leaders can employ to assist in their ICT planning
* reflect on, build awareness of, plan for and know what your next steps will be.

ABOUT THE FACILITATORS

Nikki Deighton is a principal consultant at dk2. She has extensive experience in education, leadership and the innovative implementation of digital technologies-based programs in schools. A former secondary teacher with Curriculum Coordination, Learning Support, Welfare and Discipline experience Nikki was also a teacher trainer and mentor. Nikki established and managed the Online Education Unit at the Victorian Department of Education before setting up dk2 in 2002 with colleague Meredith King. Since its inception dk2 has worked with clients such as Microsoft, Intel, IBM, DEECD, DEEWR, Education Services Australian, NBN Co and ACARA. Nikki recently completed her Masters of Education, researching a vision of e-confidence for Australian schooling.

Meredith King is a principal consultant at dk2. She has extensive experience in education as well as a number of other disciplines. Meredith initially joined the Victorian Department of Education and Training as a member of the Classrooms of the Future team and finished her seven years with the Department as acting Manager of the Online Education Unit. In 2002 Meredith established dk2 with Nikki Deighton. Nikki and Meredith have combined their significant education and technical knowledge, skills and experiences to successfully conduct a range of projects for government, not-for-profit and corporate clients all with a focus on the innovative and effective use of digital technologies.

FURTHER DETAILS

Date: Wednesday 6 November 2013
Time: 9.00am - 4.30pm
Venue: Bastow Institute of Educational Leadership
603-615 Queensberry St, North Melbourne
Please note, there is no all day street parking available near Bastow.

Information on how to get to Bastow:
https://www.bastow.vic.edu.au/EDUCATIONAL-LEADERSHIP/Pages/Locate-Us.aspx

Cost: $395 pp incl. GST

To register: